

Home

When looking for a balanced quality of life, Southport is your destination. Rich with aviation heritage, Southport is a former military training base that has expanded to include an airfield, military flight training, education programs, commercial and residential properties and a recreation centre.

Located in picturesque Manitoba, Southport is a rural community with vast open skies and outdoor spaces where people come together for the perfect balance of lifestyle and work.